Naples, Jan. 2.

THe Letters we received ſome days ſince from Spain, told that, according to all appearance our Viceroy the Marquis de los Velez will be continued in the Government of this Kingdom for three years longer. From Rome we have an account, that the differences between that Court and France grew daily wider; That the Pope ſeemed reſolved to remain firm on his ſide, and that the great expectation was of what the Cardinal d' Eſtree would be able to effect upon his arrival. Some reports have been lately ſpread abroad of preparations making by the Turks in order to the having a great Fleet of Galleys at Sea the next Summer, and that it's probable they may have an Eye upon this Kingdom; but they find little credit here, after the many groundleſs allarmes we have had of this kind, though at the ſame time our Viceroy is not wanting in his care to provide for the ſafety and defence of this Kingdom, and particularly of the martine Coaſts againſt all accidents that may happen.

Warſaw, Jan. 10. This place begins to be very full, the Senators and the Deputies, that are to compoſe the Dyet arriving daily. The King is on his journey, and will be the 13th Inſtant at Villa Nova a mile from hence, where he will continue a day or two. We have Letters from our Reſident at Conſtantinople which ſay, that the Grand Signior was gone to Adrianople, that he had ſent Orders to his Troops to march towards the Danube; That it was reported that the Grand Signior was reſolved to depoſe Michael Abafti, Prince of Tranſilvania, and to put Prince Soloiny, into his place, who has been for ſeveral years at Conſtantinople ſolliciting the ſame, and who to obtain the principality had promiſed in caſe he was eſtabliſhed in it to pay to the Grand Signior a yearly Tribute of five hundred thouſands Crown, and to put one of the ſtrongeſt places of Tranſilvania into the Grand Signiors hands, whereas the preſent Prince Abafti pays only a Tribute of 80000 Crowns.

Rome, Jan. 13. The fifth Inſtant dyed here the Cardinal Vidoni, Protector of the Affairs of Poland, in the 71 year of his Age; by his Death there are 24 places void in the Colledge of Cardinalls. We are expecting the Cardinal d' Eſtree, (who comes it's ſaid to adjuſt the differences between the Pope and the French King.

Venice, Jan. 15. The laſt week we received Letters from Turkey which told us, that notwithſtanding the great preparations which are ſaid to be making againſt Spring the Grand Vizier did entertain thoughts of a Peace, and that in order thereunto private Negotiations were kept on foot by perſons ſent for that purpoſe by the Czar of Moſcovy to Conſtantinople, but that hitherto they had not been able to agree concerning the terms of the ſaid Peace, the Turks being very high in their demands and requiring no leſs than the Ceſſion of the whole Ukraine, which the Czar of Moſcovy cannot it ſeems as yet reſolve to part with. We expect our next Letters from Rome will tell us of the arrival of the Cardinal d' Eſtree, who it's believed is fully empowred by the French King to compoſe the matters in difference between that Crown and the Court of Rome, but whether he will find there a diſpoſition to comply with thoſe things which the King does probably inſiſt upon, is much doubted.

Genoua, Jan. 22. As yet no Ships appear, which is very much wondred at, but the contrary winds muſt be the cauſe thereof; the Letters we receive from Cadiz ſay that many dye of the Plague at Port St. Maries, and that ſeveral families have thereupon left the place. Matters, as we are told, are adjuſted on the Frontiers in favor of the Subjects of this State. This afternoon came in here a Bark, who ſaw an Algerine about 20 miles to the Weſtward of this place.

Turin, Jan. 8. We have not as yet any account of the departure of the Marquis de Dronero from Thoulon, ſince he was put back by the ill weather. In the mean time many people will ſtill ſpeak doubtingly of our Dukes Marraige with the Infanta of Portugal, and perhaps they deſire it may not take effect, becauſe the Duke, according to the Articles of the Treaty of Marraige, is to leave his own Countries and to go and live in Portugal; but we ſhall be able to ſpeak with more certainty of this matter after the arrival of the Marquis de Dronero at Lisbon, for whoſe reception preparations as we hear are making by order of the Prince Regent.

Florence, January 19. The Cardinal d' Eſtree is expected here this Evening, in his way to Rome. The Great Duke had cauſed an Apartment to be prepared for him in the Archbiſhop's Palace, but he has excuſed it, intending to Lodge in a Convent. We know not how long he will ſtay here, but we ſuppoſe he will haſten his Journey to Rome.

Lintz, Jan. 19. Preparations are making for the Emperors journey to Vienna, which we are told he will begin in 8 or 10 days, though the weather is very cold. The Empreſs and her Court will remain till the River be open, that ſo ſhe may go by Water. The Biſhop of Sebellini and the Hungarian Deputies are returning home, having obtained their deſigns, which was, that a Dyet might be called, in order to the ſetling the Affairs of that Kingdom.

Ratisbonne, Jan, 20. It was reported ſome time ſince that the Emperor intended to come hither in
